Tonight's gala is the final concert in our 1995-96 subscription concert series Music at Convocation Hall. If you're a valued subscriber already, or thinking of becoming one, here's a sneak preview of our program plans for next year:

In September the renowned Dutch early music ensemble Camerata Trajectina, will be in town to celebrate the 500th birthday of Menno Simons, founder of the Dutch Mennonite movement.

In November, our Kilburn Memorial Artist will be virtuoso pianist Stephen Hough.

Other pianists featured in the series will be Visiting Professors Alexander Sander in recital with cellist Tanya Prochazka, and Jean-Paul Sevilla. Our own Marek Jablonski will give a solo recital in February and Stéphane Lemelin will perform with Winspear Visiting Professor Martin Riseley, concertmaster of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, in April.

Organist Marnie Giesbrecht and friends will be featured in the series, as well as saxophone virtuoso William Street and his friends.

Ole Edvard Antonsen, a Norwegian tour de force on the trumpet, will give a concert and masterclass in February.

Celebrating Young Artists will end the series.
