

This genealogy of the Chor (a.k.a. Jor) family was compiled probably in the 1930s or 1940s in Canton city, south China. The family line, which began there in the mid-17th century after moving south from the far north, is flourishing today.

Some updating was made in the 1980s.

The front of this genealogical record is shown here.