

Sherif Ahmed

PhD

Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering,
Faculty of Engineering

Image created in the Cold room facility - NREF Building - Main floor

Collaborator: Amber Liu

Images of Research Competition University of Alberta

Glowing Ice Crystals

Semi-finalist (2021)

The numerous ice crystals of irregular structure/colure combined together to create such a natural piece of art that fascinates both engineers and artists. Polarized light was used to glow up the ice crystals in an ice core sample. The image depicted a freezed shot of an invasion of ice sheets at the top of the image fusing the below rounded ice crystals together.