Twenty-five years ago, at the University of Lethbridge, Dominic Spera and Dr. Vondis Miller started a Summer Jazz program for school music teachers and students. After seven years, the program relocated to the University of Calgary under the direction of Dr. Malcolm Edwards. For the past 13 years, the Summer Jazz program has been hosted by the University of Alberta with Dr. Tom Dust as the director. Tonight is the 25th annual finale concert of the Summer Jazz program.
