British-born Jeremy Spurgeon won scholarships to study both piano accompaniment and organ at the Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester, and later studied organ with Lionel Rogg at the Geneva Conservatoire where he gained the Premier de la Classe de Virtuosite. In 1980, he came to Edmonton as director of music at All Saints' Cathedral, and has since appeared in concert with many Canadian and international ensembles, singers and instrumentalists, including the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Richard Eaton Singers, Pro Coro Canada and Edmonton Opera.

Roger Admiral completed his Doctor of Music degree at the University of Alberta. His main teachers were Helmut Brauss, Peter Smith and Virginia Blaha. Through the Johann Strauss Foundation Roger studied Lied-duo at the Mozarteum in Salzburg (Austria). He coaches contemporary chamber music at the University of Alberta.

Recent performances include a recital with baritone Nathan Berg at Lincoln Center in New York City (United States of America) and with contralto Marie-Nicole Lemieux at the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra's Symphony Under the Sky. Roger also performs regularly as part of the Kovalis Duo with Montreal percussionist Philip Hornsey.
