The University of Alberta Saxophone Quartet has been very active both on and off of the University campus since 1988. The current group is composed of a mix of undergraduate and graduate saxophone performance majors from a very eclectic geographic background: Canada, Thailand, Taiwan and Mexico. . They play a variety of contemporary and traditional saxophone repertory, as well as a selected group of transcriptions. They have been invited to perform at University and community functions and are in constant demand. They were recently invited to perform for Her Honor, The Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, Lois Hole.
