FOREWORD

This Directory has been compiled in the hope that it will provide an easy guide to all who may wish to consult or utilize the services of organizations in Edmonton meeting health and welfare needs in the Community.

The material published regarding each organization has been officially authorized in practically all cases. The Council of Social Agencies will appreciate being informed of omissions or changes which may occur from time to time in the listings.

The Council Office will also be pleased, upon request, to seek information concerning other organizations which are not listed in the Directory but which are related to health and welfare effort. For a description of the purposes, functions and additional services of the Council of Social Agencies, please refer to pages 32 to 36 of this Directory.
