CRCS Executive Committee and Central Council Meeting Minutes:

Archived Documents

These documents were all copied by Anna Armstrong in February 2002. Original are held by the Canadian Red Cross Society Archives at their National Office located at Suite 300, 170 Metcalfe Street Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

These documents transcribe the minutes of any CRCS Executive Committee or CRCS Central Council meeting during the years 1916-1926. On top of the minutes they also transcribe certain correspondence, and financial reports. However, when correspondence is mentioned, it is not always reproduced in full; it is sometimes only summarized or acknowledge that it was received. The minutes taken from the Central Council are not in chronological order because they are entered by archival "page" number and not by date; generally, they appear about two weeks after the meeting took place.

82 [19a]. Kanada, n/d. Fonds 5916, Opis 1, delo 2, pp 29-30.

Canadian immigration regulations: difficult for Russians to receive permission to enter Canada; homesteading plots obtained from CPR and Hudson's Bay Company; procedure for acquisition of lot of land and fulfilment of the development requirements; costs of land settlement and land acquisition; categories of persons forbidden entry into Canada. [English translation available].

83 [59]. Report of Consul-General in Montreal on Political Attitudes of Slavs Residing in Canada and the Activity of Their Political Organs, 23 Jan 1917. Fonds 102, OO, Opis 1916, delo 231 (Vol 2), pp 71-73, 141-170.

Report of Consul-General, S.G. Likhachev, on Slavic immigrant subjects of the Austro-Hungarian Empire settled in Canada. Numbers of immigrants, regions of origin, location in Canada, religious differences, identification by nationality, political divisions, connections with their homeland, reasons for emigrating, return home, conditions for them in Canada during the war years, publications and schools. As addenda, reports of Rev V. Sakovich of Winnipeg, and of Rev Poplavskii of Montreal (much commentary on the Mazepist movement), and eight other parish priests commenting on the lives of Slavs in various parts of the country. Very extensive report in this vein by Rev P. Bozhyk of Edmonton.

84 [64]. [Report on Canadian Economy for 1917-1918 to Russian Ministry of External Affairs, Prepared by S.G. Likhachev in Montreal], 30 July - 19 Aug 1919. Fonds 200, Opis 1, delo 140, pp 1-5, 42-140.

Canada as the only competitor/alternative to monopolistic tendencies of the United States in import/export trade with Russia. Need for more expert study of Canadian market economy. Political structure of Canada. Commentary on — territory; population and emigration; agriculture and livestock; manufacturing; forestry and fisheries; minerals and metals; telegraph, telephone and post; finances; exports and imports; Canadian imports of Russian goods; extent and nature of Canadian imports; and trade connections with Britain, the United States and Russia.

85 [65]. [The Consulate-General in Montreal], 12 Sept - 4 Oct 1919. Fonds 200, Opis 1, delo 103, pp 1-32.

Income and expenditures, finances of the Consulate-General.

86 [66]. [Letter of N. Gutenko, a Former White Guardist, to a Friend], ca 7 Aug 1920. Fonds 9145, Opis 1, delo 209, pp 1-5.

Gutenko's letter to a friend, wherein he describes Canada as the freest country in the world. Commentary on inter-immigrant tensions on way to Canada from Harbin; success stories of immigrants who had come to Vancouver some years earlier. On dairy farming, and ease of operations compared to Russian agriculture. Characterization of Canada as a land of limitless opportunity. Many visions in Harbin regarding Canada, and many of them realized, but what Gutenko never expected was "the fullest of freedom and opportunity", and "the absence of fear and theft" he experienced once in Canada. Comments on occupations, incomes and prices. There are "no soldiers and no policemen" anywhere in sight. Planning on going into agriculture, Gutenko urges friend to join him. (Translated into English)

87 [73]. On the Resettlement of 550 Mennonite Families to America, 18 Sept 1922 - 18 Feb 1924. Fonds 3316, Opis 17, delo 677, pp 1-8.

Minutes of a session of an inter-ministerial committee studying the request of the All-Russian Agricultural Mennonite Society for permission for 550 families (4,000 people) to migrate to America because of severe overpopulation in Mennonite communities in Russia. Approval of request by Sovnarkom (Soviet of National Commissars).

88 [84]. Session of the Presidium of the Mineworkers' Union, 11 Feb 1925. Fonds 5459, Opis 1, delo 26, pp 118-120, 198.

Protocol No.48 of the Presidium's sessions, discussion of the situation of miners in America, resolution expressing support of the general miners' strike in Nova Scotia, as well as approval of financial aid to them in the amount of $3,000.

89 [101]. [Telegrafnoe Agenstvo Sovetskogo Soiuz (TASS). Reports on Canada], 21 Jan - 13 Dec 1940. Fonds 4459, Opis 27, delo 4, pp 1-32.

Telegrams from Soviet press agents stationed in world capitals and major cities (including locations in Canada), largely from New York and Washington, reporting on developments in Canada and concerning Canada. This information was considered confidential, for government use only, and state policy decisions were at times based on it.

90 [102]. [TASS and Soviet Information Agencies], 5 Nov - 31 Dec 1941. Fonds 44, Opis 27, delo 375, pp 11-19, 120-143.

Reports of TASS agents, transcripts of radio broadcasts and informational notes compiled by press agents in the Herald of the Foreign Information Service of TASS, dealing with events in Canada or concerning Canada.
