Visiting Artist: Antonin Kubalek

Many of you will recall the thrilling concert given by Antonin Kubalek and violinist Ivan Zenaty last March. That was the first collaboration between the Department of Music and the Czechoslovak Society of Arts and Sciences of Alberta. It was so successful that we are doing it again this year. Mr Kubalek returns to Edmonton, celebrating the 25th anniversary of his arrival in Canada.

Born in Czechoslovakia, Antonin Kubalek gave many concerts in Europe and his reputation as a recording artist and professor at the Prague Conservatory grew rapidly. After emigrating to Canada he re-established his career. The late Glen Gould was a great admirer of Kubalek's "rare mix of improvisatory freedom and structural control" and was instrumental in Kubalek's success by producing a recording of his performance of Korngold's Second Piano Sonata.

Mr Kubalek serves on the teaching faculty of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto and his recordings, most recently of the piano music of Johannes Brahms on the Dorian label, continue to draw praise..."these interpretations compel the serious attention of pianists, Brahms aficionados, and anyone who demands the best in piano performance." (Sinfonia Review.)

Reception: Coffee will be served in the interval and you are warmly invited to the reception after the concert in the Arts Building, Room 3-20. Meet the artist and enjoy the refreshments courtesy of Aquarius Catering.
