Bruce Wheatcroft was appointed Director of Music at The Church of St. Andrew and St Paul, Montreal in 1995. His early studies in piano were with Alexandra Munn and Linhart Walker and he studied the organ with Robert Hunter Bell, John Searchfield and Douglas Bodle. He is currently a non-resident student in the Doctor of Ministry program at St. Stephen's College, Edmonton, specializing in liturgy and music.

He held the post of Organist and Choirmaster at Robert-Wesley United Church in Edmonton, Alberta from 1975 to 1998 and from 1991 to 1995 was the organist of St. Paul's United Church, Edmonton, Alberta. A graduate of the University of Calgary (B.Mus.), he also holds an ARCCO diploma from the Royal Canadian College of Organists.

He has frequently recorded for the CBC and appeared regularly with the Alberta Baroque Ensemble as their keyboard player and as soloist in concerto performances for harpsichord and organ.

He has lectured for the University of Alberta in History and Literature, Choral Conducting and Choral Techniques and was responsible for the first Asian tour of the University Concert Choir to Thailand, Hong Kong and China in 1989. He currently teaches for the Department of Performance at McGill University.

Since 1976 he has pursued an active teaching and performing career giving recitals throughout Canada, Europe, Asia and the United States. His article on the history of organ building and organ music in Canada which appeared in the second edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia, has been recently revised and will appear in the third edition of that publication.

Mr. Wheatcroft is currently president of the Montreal centre of the Royal Canadian College of Organists and represented Quebec, performing at the National convention of the college in Hamilton, Ontario in 1999 and was a featured artist in Les Concerts Spirituels at St. Joseph's Oratory in Montreal later in the summer. In addition, he serves on the committee for the joint convention of Les amis de l'orgue and the RCCO in Quebec City in July of 2000.

In November, a compact disc featuring his work as a conductor will be jointly released by the CBC and The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul.
